The Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office is pleased to announce the launch of our Podcasts page on the Web at: <prosecutor.co.monmouth.nj.us/podcasts.html>.

The Podcasts page will feature informational presentations in a number of areas, beginning with Internet and Cell Phone Safety for Parents. This 13 minute narrated presentation, available in Spanish and English, introduces parents to common communications devices used by teens and appropriate privacy solutions for each. The Podcasts page will be updated periodically with new topics and subject matter on a variety of issues.

Monmouth County Prosecutor Luis Valentin stated, "The Podcasts page is part of the Prosecutor's Office ongoing educational outreach effort to provide useful public and personal safety information, in a variety of formats, that is easily accessible by everyone.
